A rather unexplainable phenomenon is occurring. In the front section of the white paper, I tell about how video files had been destroyed and how two thumb-drive backups had been stolen from Matthew Michael's locked safe, that showed no evidence of breaking and entering. Over a two week period, both thumb drives reappeared, one in his back yard where a series of geometric shapes have showing up in the ground for the last year. The thumb drive was buried half-way into the ground of this area. The second thumb drive appeared a week later in his basement wrapped in clothing that did not belong to Matt. Both drives had files returned that previously were not on either drive. These were photos that had not been stored on any of Matt's computers or backup drives. Plus what also showed up were encrypted files that Matt unzipped to reveal a Hubble photo of the Helix Nebula, along with the ET frequency in Addendum A and the above frequency in Addendum B. I took the photo to be a hint that DNA has access to space/time. What follows is the decoding of these two frequency patterns that leads to DNA access of timespace.

It should be noted upfront that this information should be used wisely. Any time one moves into the future, it is altered by the Heisenburg principle. And any time the past, present, or future is altered, there are consequences in a human being's life. Nothing should be altered unless it is for that person's greatest benefit and highest good.

It also needs to be noted that the frequencies in Addendum A should be used first to make sure all the chakras are clear and balanced. Chakra tuning forks may be used as well in clearing the chakras. In the past, the angelic realm has stated in certain teachings, involving healing tones and sacred oils, that the chakras need to be cleared first. Chakras, themselves, are gateways within the body. And if the body is going to be altered for whatever reason, these chakras should first be cleared so as allow the full effect of the tones and/or the oils to operate with no impedance.

What I have discovered is that the chakras are the chi source for feeding what I call the Christ Body merkaba. We have actual Kirlian video of this merkaba rotating above people's heads, especially those who have been initiated during an angelic gathering weekend. I suspect that the same occurs with those initiated into diksha. What also should be noted is that the merkaba rotates at different speeds depending on the person's soul ray color. See Joe Crane's and my book on The Masters Return for more detail on this. The Christ Body merkaba must be rotating at the correct frequency before any of these tones are used. So make sure all the chakras are clear and in balance before using these frequencies. Do not mistake "clearing" for "opening." Chakras do not have to be open for these frequencies to be used.

When clearing chakras, all chakras should be cleared in the same session. And the best order for clearing them is thusly:

heart ... throat ... solar plexus ... sacral ... 3rd eye ... root ... crown

There is a reason for this order that relates to how the angels work with our bodies: Christ Body, then spiritual-mental, then mental, then emotional, then spiritual-emotional, then physical, then spiritual-physical. This particular order is also connected to the Angelic Merkaba and the stones that are attached to the merkaba. The angelic realm always approaches humanity through the following sequence: Mental, Emotional, and then the Physical. The Spiritual is sub-divided into the Spiritual-Mental, Spiritual-Emotional, and the Spiritual-Physical. And the order that the angels use within the Spiritual is in a descending energetic sequence of Spiritual-Physical, Spiritual-Emotional, and then Spiritual-Mental.

Here is the pattern that determines these frequencies as a set. Firstly if you add any of the frequencies to it neighbor you get an angelic harmonic:

$$[615 \ 162 \ 726] \dots 615+162 = 777 \dots 162+726 = 888$$

The difference between the first and second frequency and the second and third frequency are always the reverse counterpart, being either a Scale 2 or a Scale 9 frequency.

$$615-162 = 543 \dots 162-726 = 345$$

This pattern holds in all the frequencies in this addendum. What this means is that all the frequencies are binomial to one another. There exist only five solfeggio giving-frequencies (flowing right) and five solfeggio receiving-frequencies (flowing left) in this gateway:

giving freqs: 837 372 726 261 615 receiving freqs: 738 273 726 261 615

1	2	3	2	1		1	2	3	2	1	← times used
615	162	726				738	372	627
	162	726	273				372	627	261
		726	273	837				627	261	516

The same pattern shows up when each frequency is coupled with its reverse opposite:

[837 738 837]	837-738 = 198 ...	738-837 = 891
	837+738= 666 ...	738+837= 666

Thus we have paired chord frequencies that are used to first open the gateway and then the triple chord frequencies to create healing with intent once the gateway is opened. To decide whether to use giving or receiving frequencies, take a look at the purpose of the intent. If the intent is to release issues from the past or release past karma, then giving (up) frequencies are used. If one's intent is to bring blessings in from the future or to move into a place of preparing for a better future, then receiving (allowing) frequencies are used. It is recommended that an experienced facilitator be used in deciding whether a person is ready for such change or whether the person's best purpose and highest good are at work. Likewise, few people are able and ready to work with jumps from past directly to future, so most need to take steps in the present first. So there are five steps associated with DNA timespace work.

Past to Present → [273 372]		Present to Past → [837 738]
Present to/from Parallel Present ↔ [726 627]
Present to Future → [261 162]		Future to Present → [615 516]

I have not had occasion yet to determine whether the timespace gates have to be opened before using the giving or receiving frequencies or the other way around. This is a lot of new information that will keep everyone associated with this information quite busy as we further explore the impact of the Ascension Frequencies.
